Overflow Crowd Attends Bais Yaakov of Baltimore Fathers' Brunch

On the morning of January 1st, Bais Yaakov of Baltimore Elementary School welcomed over 300 guests to its Owings Mills-Park Heights Campus for the PTA's Fathers' Brunch and Open House. The atmosphere was friendly and uplifting as attendees sat together and enjoyed a delicious and generous brunch buffet. Rabbi Duvi Rubin, Rav of Kehillas Ohr Yisrael, shared inspiring divrei Torah and a message about the partnership between school and parents, providing motivating lessons for everyone.

Afterward, the fathers were joined by their daughters and were offered to have their pictures taken in photo booths. There was a very positive feeling throughout the overflow crowd, and the girls were happy to have their fathers join them at school. After they returned to class, all of the students were given a special treat for being such great hostesses.

Fathers also had the opportunity to take a guided tour of the elementary school building with its improvements and renovations, as well as the beautiful sprawling campus grounds.

It was an extraordinary morning and a wonderful opportunity for Bais Yaakov fathers to connect with the hanhalah, board members and each other, while getting a taste of the incredible school their daughters attend.

Bais Yaakov hopes to continue offering additional such opportunities in the future to engage parents in their daughters' chinuch. B'ezeras Hashem, may all continue to share in nachas from the students.
